A reasonable opportunity to object or be heard regarding the relief granted by this Order has been afforded to those parties entitled to notice pursuant to Local Rule 2002-1(b).

C. The Sale Procedures set forth in this Order, including procedures with respect to the assumption and assignment of certain executory contracts in connection therewith, and the entry into and performance of obligations under the Bahamas Properties Exclusive Sales Agency Agreement were proposed in good faith by the Debtors, are fair, reasonable and appropriate under the circumstances and are properly designed to maximize the recovery from any sale of the Bahamas Properties. The Debtors have demonstrated good and sufficient business reasons for this Court to enter this Order, and such good and sufficient reasons, which are set forth in the Motion and on the record at the Sale Procedures Hearing, are incorporated herein by reference and, among other things, form the basis for the findings of fact and conclusions of law set forth herein.

D. ---

<sup>4</sup> The Debtors are continuing discussions with the JOLs to finalize the Sale Procedures and will file them shortly.

5. Pursuant to section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, any sale of the Bahamas Properties in accordance with this Order shall be free and clear of any liens, claims, encumbrances and interests, with any such liens, claims, encumbrances and interests to attach to the proceeds of such sale with the same validity, priority, force and effect as such liens, claims, encumbrances and interests had on the sold assets immediately prior to the sale, subject to the rights, claims, defenses and obligations, if any, of the Debtors and all interested parties with respect to any such asserted liens, claims, encumbrances and interests.

6. Upon the closing of a sale or transfer of a Bahamas Property, the Debtors may assume and assign, or reject any executory contract and pay the Cure Amounts, if any. The non-Debtor parties to any executory contracts are hereby barred from asserting any further claims in respect of such executory contracts after the applicable Sale Objection Deadline.

7. With respect to executory contracts to be assumed, or assumed and assigned, as part of the sale or transfer under the Sale Procedures and this Order, any adequate assurance of future performance shall be provided, and any Cure Amounts paid, consistent with section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code.

8. The Sale Procedures shall not apply to any sale of Bahamas Properties to an “insider” of the Debtors as that term is defined in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code.

9. The Sale Procedures shall not apply to the sale of any causes of action against any current or former employee, director, officer or professionals of the Debtors, and the Debtors shall not sell or release any causes of action against any current or former employee, director, officer or professionals of the Debtors in connection with any sale of the Bahamas Properties. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors may release causes of action against the applicable Bahamas Properties and the purchaser of any Bahamas Properties in connection with such purchase, provided, however, that if the Debtors release or sell causes of action, the Debtors shall comply with the procedures set forth in paragraph 4 and specify within the Sale Notice any releases or sale of causes of action in connection with a sale of the Bahamas Properties.

10. To the extent the Debtors are aware of any person or entity who asserts a lien on any Bahamas Property, the Debtors shall comply with the procedures set forth in in paragraph 4 and serve on such person or entity and their counsel, if known, a Sale Notice.

11. The absence of a timely objection to the sale or transfer of the Bahamas Properties in accordance with the Sale Procedures and the terms of this Order shall constitute “consent” to such sale or transfer free and clear of Liens and Claims within the meaning of section 363(f)(2) by any party asserting liens, claims, encumbrances against, and other interests in, any Bahamas Properties, as applicable.

12. All rights of all parties in interest in these cases, including non-Debtor contract counterparties, to object to a sale or transfer of the Bahamas Properties or assumption, assumption and assignment or rejection of executory contracts, as applicable, in accordance with the Sale Procedures are hereby expressly reserved (notwithstanding paragraphs 63 and 64 of the Motion).

13. The Debtors are authorized to take any action that is reasonable and necessary to close the Sales and to obtain the proceeds thereof, including, without limitation, paying reasonable and necessary fees and expenses to agents, brokers and dealers, and liquidators.

14. During these Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors shall file, and serve on the U.S. Trustee, the Official Committee and the Consulting Professionals a written report within 30 days after each calendar month (to the extent Sales were consummated in the relevant month) concerning any sales or transfers made pursuant to this Order. The Debtors' reporting obligations with respect to Sales shall terminate following the Debtors' filing of such a report (and serving a copy thereof on the U.S. Trustee, the Official Committee and the Consulting Professionals 30 days after the effective date of a confirmed chapter 11 plan (for the calendar month in which the plan became effective)).

15. Objections. All objections to the Motion solely as it relates to the relief granted by this Order that have not been adjourned, withdrawn or resolved are overruled in all respects on the merits.

16. Noticing Procedures. The noticing procedures as set forth in this Order are hereby approved. Within three business days after entry of this Order, the Debtors shall serve this Order, together with any attachments, by first-class mail (and/or by email, as applicable) upon: (a) the U.S. Trustee; (b) counsel to the Official Committee; (c) the Securities and Exchange Commission; (d) the Internal Revenue Service; (e) the United States Department of Justice; (f) the United States Attorney for the District of Delaware; and (g) to the extent not listed herein, those parties requesting notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002. On or about the same date, the Debtors shall publish this Order on the Debtors' case information website (located at <https://restructuring.ra.kroll.com/FTX>). Service of this Order and as applicable, the Sale Notice on the Sale Notice Parties and publication thereof in the manner described in this Order, to the extent required by the Sale Procedures, constitutes good and sufficient notice of the Debtors' proposed sale of the Bahamas Properties free and clear of any liens, claims, interests and encumbrances, pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 363(f). No other or further notice is required, except as otherwise set forth herein.

17. The Debtors are authorized to make decisions with respect to the Bahamas Properties (for the avoidance of doubt, not including sales of investments, except as set forth herein or in another order of the Court), including the payment of third party fees in amounts that are reasonable and customary for investments of such type, in the ordinary course of business.

18. All persons or entities that participate in the sale process shall be deemed to have knowingly and voluntarily submitted to the exclusive jurisdiction of this Court with respect to all matters related to the Sale Procedures.

19. The Debtors are authorized and empowered to execute and deliver such documents, and to take and perform all actions necessary to implement and effectuate the relief granted in this Order (excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, the payment of any amounts or the incurrence of any fees, costs or expenses to such investee companies and/or their representatives except as expressly contemplated by this Order).

20. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Motion, this Order, or any findings announced at the Sale Procedures Hearing, nothing in the Motion, this Order, or announced at the Sale Procedures Hearing constitutes a finding under the federal securities laws as to whether crypto tokens or transactions involving crypto tokens are securities, and the right of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission to challenge transactions involving crypto tokens on any basis are expressly reserved.

21. All time periods set forth in this Order shall be calculated in accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 9006(a).

22. The requirements set forth in Local Rule 9013-1(b) are satisfied.

23. The requirements set forth in Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) are satisfied.

24. This Order is immediately effective and enforceable, notwithstanding the possible applicability of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h) or otherwise.

25. This Court shall retain jurisdiction with respect to any matters, claims, rights or disputes arising from or related to the Motion or the implementation of this Order.
